NOT TO BE RE-ELECTED

A Successor Will Be Chosen to Rev. C. H. Crawford.

HOLD SESSIONTO-MORROW

Dr. Crawford Has Two Excellent Posi tions Offered Him, and is Pretty Certain to Accept One of Them. Dr. Moore May Come.

The Executive Committee of the Antip'clock to-morrow afternoon in the parlo of the Young Men's Christian Association and will proceed with the election of salaried officers, as provided in the constitution amended at the recent annual convention.

WILL MAKE CHANGES.

At the present time there are two such saiarled officers connected with the league -the superintendent and the field secretary-but the committee contemplates a rearrangement with reference to them. The office of field secretary will be abolished. The superintendent will be expect

The office of field secretary will be abolished. The superintendent will be expected to cover the field, and there will be created the new position of office secretary, the occupant of which position will lok after the detail work, correspondence and so on, and will be of the nature of sin assistant superintendent.

The rumors concerning the attitude of the lengue with reference to the Rev. O. H. Crawford, the present superintendent, are known to the public and are known, moreover, to be correct. It may be stated positively that Mr. Crawford will not be telected to the office of superintendent. Personally there is no objection to him, but the fact that he is a Northern man, uracquainted with Virginia and Virginians and their ideas and methods, hampers him greatly. It is thought that some strong, vigorous man, a native of the state, could get around better and could make more rapid progress. The committee, it is said, wishes to retain Mr. Crawford, if possible, and would make him the office man if he would accept the position. This, as shown below, appears, however, to be an unlikely development.

The Rev. J. W. West, the field secretary if the league, whose position will be abolished, will certainly be retained. Mr. West is a "hustler," and has been doing some hurd and effective work. He will probably be made susprintendent of one of the districts in the State.

WILL HE RESIGN?

With reference to the above state of affairs, it was rumored yesterday that Mr. Crawford will accept one of the two faftering calls he has just received, will resign and will probably go South for work. The superintendent was seen and asked about the matter, but he declined to make a statement. He is awaiting the arrival of important letters, and until they come he can announce nothing. He raid, however, that he would probably know definitely by to-morrow what he will do.

said, however, that he would probably know definitely by to-morrow what he will

There is reason to believe that Mr. Crawford has decided to accept, or is contemplating doing so, the position of superintendent of the Southeastern District of the American Anti-Salora Leaves ct of the American Anti-Saloon League, vering the South Atlan...c States. In is case his headquarters would probably in this city or in Atlanta. The letters which he is waiting, or one of them, from the Rev. Dr. Russell, general suintendent of the American Anti-Saloon ague.

tripe subscription of the American Anti-Saloon League.

THE SUBCOMMITTEE.

The subcommittee appointed by the Executive Committee to look about for a new man for the office of superintendent under the new arrangement of offices will prehably submit a report to-morrow. One of the members was seen yesterday aftersoon, but knew nothing particular about the situation, Dr. Gordon B. Moore, the distinguished professor of Furman University, is being prominently considered, and, it is said, has been communicated with. Dr. Moore, it is further stated, would accept a call to the position. Among the other names reported to be under consideration is that of Dr. W. F. Fisher, of Portsmouth.

VIRGINIA FOR HANNA

Practical Working Republicans on the Mistakes of Roosevelt.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) carry Virginia for Hanna," said one of the best-informed men in the Republican organization. The occasion for the prognostication was the comments that several men in a group had made on the mistakes of President Roossvelt. These mistakes of President Roosavelt. These mistakes are not pleasant for the average politician to contemplate. They are especially annoying to those who are sharged with the intensely practical work of rounding up the voters.

The reasons why the practical men in the Republican party wish to nominate Hanna are obviously that Hanna himself is practical and that they know precisely where to find him. These men say that they cannot tell from one day to another what President Roosevelt will do. They illustrate their criticism by the outcome of the distribution of offices in Virginia, which they say has not been for the good of the party here or to senure delegates to the National Convention, but to gratify some personal whims of the President, which no one could anticipate before they we, esprung, and no one can account for since they have been accomplished. The chief cause of the complaint, however, is that in these appointments persons and questions suiside of the State have had more influence than the organization in the State has determined.

The object of these Hanna men is to control, by the organization, all the political affairs of the State. That cannot be done in the present condition, consequently this plea for Hanna.
